

A

Making Friends

TASK 1 Communication Circle

STEP
i

Stand in two concentric circles (one inside and the other outside, facing each other).

STEP
ii

In the space below, write any three questions that you would like to ask other people in order to get to know them better. For example:

- ◆ What kind of food do you like?
- ◆ Do you like movies? Why? Why not? Who is your favorite actor/actress?

.....

.....

.....

STEP
iii

Ask and answer the questions with the person facing you and write down his/her answers. You have one minute.

STEP
iv

Move one place to your left and repeat the questions with your new partner. Continue all the way around the circle.

STEP
v

Choose a partner, and then follow up with more questions. If there is an odd number of students, three can work together. You will then write a profile of your partner. You have 10–15 minutes to write the profile. Use the next page.

NOTES

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

PROFILE

A series of 20 horizontal dashed lines for writing.

In groups of four or five, you will take turns introducing your partner to the other group members.

TASK*2*Thinking Game*STEP
i

Think about the following question: "If you could be any animal, what animal would you be and why?" In the space below, write the name of the animal and adjectives that describe it. For example:

I would be a tiger because tigers are strong, brave, and fierce.

---

---

---

STEP
ii

Next, "If you couldn't be that animal, what other animal would you be and why?" Again, write your answer below.

---

---

---

STEP
iii

Finally, "If you couldn't be either of those animals, what other animal would you be and why?" Again, write your answer below.

---

---

---

STEP
iv

In groups of three or four, discuss what you think your animals mean. After you finish your discussion, turn to the Appendix (P. 61) to see what they mean.

---

---

---

